

CHARLES D. WASSERMAN

Charles (Charlie) D. Wasserman and his wife, Jill have been married for 19 years. They have two amazing sons, Tyler, 16 and Jonathan, 14. Charlie and his family moved to Plainview in the fall of 2005. Both sons attended Religious School and became Bar Mitzvah at Plainview Jewish Center (PJC).

Charlie was born in the Bronx and grew up in Rockland County. He was a member and had a seat on the Board of Trustees of the Nanuet Hebrew Center prior to moving to Plainview, Long Island. Charlie has served on the PJC Board of Trustees over the last eight years as a board member, and on the Executive Board as Sergeant at Arms, Vice President and Chairman of the Board.

Charles D. Wasserman is a partner in the law firm of Novick, Edelstein, Lubell, Reisman, Wasserman & Leventhal, P.C. The firm litigates housing court matters in the City of New York, Westchester, Long Island and Rockland County. Charles graduated from Brooklyn Law School in 1995 and was admitted to the New York State Bar. His area of specialty is Commercial and Residential litigation. Charles is a member of the American Bar Association, New York State Bar Association, and is the Vice President of the Kings County Housing Court Bar Association.